WINE HOSTS BIO

Eric & Robin Replogle, Fenestra Winery

Eric Replogle is the son of Lanny and Fran Replogle, who started Fenestra Winery in 1976. Fenestra is located in a historic building which was built in 1889. Fenestra is one of the oldest wineries in Livermore, and one of a few that is still family run.

Eric grew up in the winery business and has been an integral part of Fenestra for the past 47 years. In addition to working at the winery, he holds a Ph.D. in Theoretical Chemistry and is an attorney. Most importantly, he is the keeper of the stories about the early days of the Livermore Valley Wine Region and Fenestra!

Robin, his wife, has been involved in the winery since before they were married in 1999. She currently holds the position of Event Coordinator and Board Member of Fenestra. Robin's mother was from France and her love of all things French runs deep in her veins. She and Eric have a great love of history, wine and food, and exploration. In addition, Eric and Robin are passionate about wine and food pairings and often prepare menus for private wine events at the winery.
